

HIS594_ Four Credit Hour Internship
Instructor: Dr. Timothy Cuff

Syllabus, Summer 2018

Brett Bartholomew, Junior History Major

Brett will work for a minimum of one hundred and 60 hours during the summer semester performing research work for Dr. Cuff. His work will vary from collecting information on prisoners housed in 19th century Pennsylvania prisons to collecting information about West Point cadets.

Brett will produce a bi-monthly essay reflecting on his experience doing primary source historical research. At the conclusion of the term he will produce a final reflective essay considering the entirety of his experience. Both of these written documents will focus on what Brett learns about historical research, about the world of work generally, and about himself.

Grading will be S/U.
